

15th May 2009
Final Programme

09.00 – 09.30 Registration
Coffee / tea / pastries and Exhibition viewing
09.30 – 09.40	Welcome and introduction Catherine Plowright Chair BACCN Southern Region Eddie Crunden Chair STICUMUP
09.40 – 10.20	Plenary session: The bald facts - survival from intensive care: morbidity and mortality in the UK Dr Kathy Rowan ICNARC
10.20 – 11.00	Plenary session: Outcome from critical care – perspectives, definitions and criteria. Dr Loua Shaikh – Medical Lead Surrey Critical Care Network
11.00 – 11.30	Tea / coffee and exhibition viewing
11.30 – 12.00	<table style="width: 100%; border: none;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room A: ICU nurse - what makes you think you're so hot? Implementing the Nursing and Midwifery Accountability System (NMAS) in critical care. Ursula Clarke, Deputy Director of Nursing, Medway Maritime Hospital </td> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room B: Does it matter whether a hospital has an outreach service? Deborah Dawson, Consultant Nurse Critical Care, St Georges' Hospital </td> </tr> </table>	Room A: ICU nurse - what makes you think you're so hot? Implementing the Nursing and Midwifery Accountability System (NMAS) in critical care. Ursula Clarke, Deputy Director of Nursing, Medway Maritime Hospital	Room B: Does it matter whether a hospital has an outreach service? Deborah Dawson, Consultant Nurse Critical Care, St Georges' Hospital
Room A: ICU nurse - what makes you think you're so hot? Implementing the Nursing and Midwifery Accountability System (NMAS) in critical care. Ursula Clarke, Deputy Director of Nursing, Medway Maritime Hospital	Room B: Does it matter whether a hospital has an outreach service? Deborah Dawson, Consultant Nurse Critical Care, St Georges' Hospital
12.00 – 12.30	<table style="width: 100%; border: none;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room A: The impact of follow-up on the patient experience. Dr Janice Rattray, Senior Lecturer, University of Dundee </td> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room B: Pre-op assessment – the role of CPX in risk stratification. Dr Andy Taylor, Consultant Anaesthetist, Maidstone Hospital </td> </tr> </table>	Room A: The impact of follow-up on the patient experience. Dr Janice Rattray, Senior Lecturer, University of Dundee	Room B: Pre-op assessment – the role of CPX in risk stratification. Dr Andy Taylor, Consultant Anaesthetist, Maidstone Hospital
Room A: The impact of follow-up on the patient experience. Dr Janice Rattray, Senior Lecturer, University of Dundee	Room B: Pre-op assessment – the role of CPX in risk stratification. Dr Andy Taylor, Consultant Anaesthetist, Maidstone Hospital
12.30 – 13.00	<table style="width: 100%; border: none;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room A: A partner's perspective on life after discharge home. Barry Williams, CritPal </td> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room B: Does a unit manager affect patient outcomes? Professor John Purcell, ACAS </td> </tr> </table>	Room A: A partner's perspective on life after discharge home. Barry Williams, CritPal	Room B: Does a unit manager affect patient outcomes? Professor John Purcell, ACAS
Room A: A partner's perspective on life after discharge home. Barry Williams, CritPal	Room B: Does a unit manager affect patient outcomes? Professor John Purcell, ACAS
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch and exhibition viewing
14.00 – 14.30	<table style="width: 100%; border: none;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room A Tracheostomy – better sooner than later. What does the evidence say? Dr John Griffiths, Honorary Research Fellow, John Radcliffe Hospital </td> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room B Does your behaviour affect a patient's morbidity and mortality? TBC </td> </tr> </table>	Room A Tracheostomy – better sooner than later. What does the evidence say? Dr John Griffiths, Honorary Research Fellow, John Radcliffe Hospital	Room B Does your behaviour affect a patient's morbidity and mortality? TBC
Room A Tracheostomy – better sooner than later. What does the evidence say? Dr John Griffiths, Honorary Research Fellow, John Radcliffe Hospital	Room B Does your behaviour affect a patient's morbidity and mortality? TBC
14.30 – 15.00	<table style="width: 100%; border: none;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room A: Organ donation – balancing a life lost with lives given. Sarah Beale, Donor Transplant Coordinator, South Thames Transplant Coordination Service </td> <td style="width: 50%; border: none; vertical-align: top;"> Room B: Improving end of life care. Natalie Pattison, Clinical Nursing Research Fellow, The Royal Marsden Hospital </td> </tr> </table>	Room A: Organ donation – balancing a life lost with lives given. Sarah Beale, Donor Transplant Coordinator, South Thames Transplant Coordination Service	Room B: Improving end of life care. Natalie Pattison, Clinical Nursing Research Fellow, The Royal Marsden Hospital
Room A: Organ donation – balancing a life lost with lives given. Sarah Beale, Donor Transplant Coordinator, South Thames Transplant Coordination Service	Room B: Improving end of life care. Natalie Pattison, Clinical Nursing Research Fellow, The Royal Marsden Hospital
15.00 – 15.30	Tea / coffee and exhibition viewing
15.30 – 16.00	Plenary session Rehabilitation after critical care – the new NICE guidelines. Dr Stephen Brett, Consultant in Intensive Care Medicine Imperial College London, Chair of Guideline Development Group
16.00 – 16.30	Plenary session The Challenge: 'The BACCN and STICUMUP challenge you to make a difference to your patients, this week, this year' Eddie Crunden Suzanne Bench Chair of STICUMUP BACCN Southern Region Secretary
16.30 – 16.45	Concluding remarks and prize giving Eddie Crunden Catherine Plowright Chair STICUMUP Chair BACCN Southern Region		